Want to join something GREAT and make a difference?

Would you like to be part of an organization committed to a bright future where Washington's lands, waters, and communities thrive? Are you ready to meet the challenges of a changing climate and ever-increasing demands on our natural resources? Do you hold equity, diversity, inclusion, and environmental justice as important values that are vital to mission accomplishment? Do you enjoy helping others grow and reach their full potential? Well, this may be your dream job! We are the Washington State Department of Natural Resources (DNR), looking for the right person to lead the 427 permanent, non-permanent, and seasonal employees who comprise DNR's Northeast Region.

What we will trust you with:

- Lead the team that delivers DNR's mission in the Northeast Region: manage, sustain, and protect the health and productivity of Washington's lands and waters to meet the needs of present and future generations.
- Safeguard the health, well-being, and productivity of the Region staff.
- Demonstrate safety as the Region's highest operational priority.
- Infuse principles and practices of equity, diversity, inclusion, and environmental justice into all aspects of Region operations.
- Support, inspire, and guide the Region staff as they work to accomplish DNR's strategic goals.

DutiesResponsibilities:

- Serve as the Commissioner of Public Lands' chief representative within the geographic boundaries of the Northeast Region.
- Serve as a member of DNR's Senior Leadership Team.
- Provide outstanding leadership for a Region staff of 184 permanent, 21 non-permanent, and 222 seasonal employees.
- Oversee the implementation of DNR's natural resource management and protection programs within the Region.
- Implement a proactive workplace safety program to improve employee safety awareness and reduce accidents and injuries.
- Lead and coach the implementation of DNR's equity, diversity, inclusion, and environmental justice initiatives by Region staff.
- Establish and maintain excellent working relationships and communications with elected officials, local governments, Indian Tribes, regional offices of other state and federal agencies, and stakeholder groups.
- Develop and ensure proper utilization of a $49 million biennial operating budget.

Qualifications

Required Qualifications:

- A bachelor's degree AND 10 years of professional-level experience with a demonstrated progression in leadership responsibilities in the areas of natural resource management and personnel management;
OR a combination of education and/or experience equivalent.
- Key Knowledge:
 - Knowledge of organizational leadership principles and practices.
 - Knowledge of continuous improvement and change management practices and processes.
 - Knowledge of principles and practices of natural resource management.
 - Knowledge of wildfire prevention and suppression practices, and the Incident Command System (ICS).
 - Familiarity with Washington's Forest Practices Act and Rules.
 - Familiarity with Washington State's legislative process.
- Key Skills:
 - Experience-based ability to lead a large organization.
 - Strong commitment to ethical leadership and the goals of equity, diversity, inclusion, and environmental justice.
 - Experience-based ability to create a positive work environment, build morale, and elicit sustained superior job performance.
 - Excellent communication skills.
 - Experience-based ability to guide a team through deadline and workload pressures, and to resolve competing workload demands.
 - Demonstrated ability to work collaboratively to solve tough problems.
 - Experience-based ability to develop and implement large budgets.
 - Strong safety awareness and orientation.
- Commitment to fostering and supporting an environment that honors diversity, equity, inclusion, and environmental justice practices.
- Perform assigned duties in a manner consistent with applicable laws, regulations and public records retention and requests are followed.
- DNR Core Competencies:
 - Personal Accountability
 - Value Others
 - Compassionate Communication

- Inspire Others
- Commitment to Excellence

Special Requirements and Conditions of Employment:

- Work is typically performed in an office setting or meeting rooms. Occasional field trips occur, and trips to visit fire lines are common.
- Schedule varies greatly. Core work hours are 0800-1630. There are numerous evening meetings to attend each month. During fire season, the position is on call 24/7 and works evenings, weekends, holidays, etc.
- Position requires travel to Olympia for meetings every other month. On average, 5 nights per month are spent in travel status (much more during fire season).

Desired Qualifications:

- Knowledge of natural resource management issues in the Pacific Northwest.
- Awareness of Washington's Indian Tribes, tribal sovereignty, and treaty rights.
- Familiarity with principles and practices of labor unions and collective bargaining.
- Familiarity with the Revised Code of Washington (RCW) and the Washington Administrative Code (WAC) as these apply to DNR.

Don't let doubts stop you from applying for this position. If you have any questions about the required qualifications or how your experience relates to them, please contact us at DNRrecruiting@dnr.wa.gov. A note to potential candidates: Studies have shown that women, trans, non-binary, Black, Indigenous, and people of color (BIPOC) are less likely to apply for jobs unless they feel they meet every qualification as described in a job description. We value diversity and inclusion in our organization, and we are looking for the best person for the job. Don't hesitate to apply!

Benefits

More than Just a Paycheck!

Employee benefits are not just about the kind of services you get, they are also about how much you may have to pay out of pocket. Washington State offers one of the most competitive benefits packages in the nation.

We understand that your life revolves around more than just your career. Like everyone, your first priority is ensuring that you and your family will maintain health and financial security. That's why choice is a key component of our benefits package. We have a selection of health and retirement plans, paid leave, staff training and other compensation benefits that you can mix and match to meet your current and future needs.

Read about our benefits:

The following information describes typical benefits available for full-time employees who are expected to work more than six months. Actual benefits may vary by appointment type or be prorated for other than full-time work (e.g. part-time); view the job posting for benefits details for job types other than full-time.

Note: If the position offers benefits which differ from the following, the job posting should include the specific benefits.

Insurance Benefits

Employees and their families are covered by medical (including vision), dental and basic life insurance. There are multiple medical plans with affordable monthly premiums that offer coverage throughout the state.

Staff are eligible to enroll each year in a medical flexible spending account which enables them to use tax-deferred dollars toward their health care expenses. Employees are also covered by basic life and long-term disability insurance, with the option to purchase additional coverage amounts.

To view premium rates, coverage choice in your area and how to enroll, please visit the Public Employees Benefits Board \(PEBB\) website. The Washington Wellness program from the Health Care Authority works with PEBB to support our workplace wellness programs.

Dependent care assistance allows the employee to save pre-tax dollars for a child or elder care expenses.

Other insurance coverage for auto, boat, home, and renter insurance is available through payroll deduction.

The Washington State Employee Assistance Program promotes the health and well-being of employees.

Retirement and Deferred Compensation

State Employees are members of the Washington Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS). New employees have the option of two employer contributed retirement programs. For additional information, check out the Department of Retirement Systems' web site.

Employees also have the ability to participate in the Deferred Compensation Program (DCP). This is a supplemental retirement savings program (similar to an IRA) that allows you control over the amount of pre-tax salary dollars you defer as well as the flexibility to choose between multiple investment options.

Social Security

All state employees are covered by the federal Social Security and Medicare systems. The state and the employee pay an equal amount into the system.

Public Service Loan Forgiveness

If you are employed by a government or not-for-profit organization, and meet the qualifying criteria, you may be eligible to receive student loan forgiveness under the Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program.

Holidays

Full-time and part-time employees are entitled to paid holidays and one paid personal holiday per calendar year.

Note: Employees who are members of certain Unions may be entitled to additional personal leave day(s), please refer to position specific Collective Bargaining Agreements for more information.

Full-time employees who work full monthly schedules qualify for holiday compensation if they are employed before the holiday and are in pay status for at least 80 nonovertime hours during the month of the holiday; or for the entire work shift preceding the holiday.

Part-time employees who are in pay status during the month of the holiday qualify for the holiday on a pro-rata basis. Compensation for holidays (including personal holiday) will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status in the month to that required for full-time employment, excluding all holiday hours. Pay status includes hours worked and time on paid leave.

Sick Leave

Full-time employees earn eight hours of sick leave per month. Overtime eligible employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month, earn a monthly proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Overtime exempt employees who are in pay status for less than 80 hours per month do not earn a monthly accrual of sick leave.

Sick leave accruals for part-time employees will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment. Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

Vacation (Annual Leave)

Full-time employees accrue vacation leave at the rates specified in WAC 357-31-165(1) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA). Full-time employees who are in pay status for less than 80 nonovertime hours in a month do not earn a monthly accrual of vacation leave.

Part-time employees accrue vacation leave hours in accordance with WAC 357-31-165(1) or the applicable collective bargaining agreement (CBA) on a pro rata basis. Vacation leave accrual will be proportionate to the number of hours in pay status, in the month to that required for full-time employment.

Pay status includes hours worked, time on paid leave and paid holiday.

As provided in WAC 357-58-175, an employer may authorize a lump-sum accrual of vacation leave or accelerate the vacation leave accrual rate to support the recruitment and/or retention of a candidate or employee for a Washington Management Service position. Vacation leave accrual rates may only be accelerated using the rates established WAC 357-31-165.

Note: Most agencies follow the civil service rules covering leave and holidays for exempt employees even though there is no requirement for them to do so. However, agencies are required to adhere to the applicable RCWs pertaining holidays and leave.

Military Leave

Washington State supports members of the armed forces with 21 days paid military leave per year.

Bereavement Leave

Most employees whose family member or household member dies, are entitled to three (3) days of paid bereavement leave. In addition, the employer may approve other available leave types for the purpose of bereavement leave.

Additional Leave

Leave Sharing

Parental Leave

Family and Medical Leave Act \(FMLA\)

Leave Without Pay

Please visit the State HR Website for more detailed information regarding benefits.
